The Jacksonville Wildlife Rescue Coalition is not an approved FDOC community service provider. On May 2, 2017, Florida Department of Corrections Offender Patricia Drake testified in a sworn recorded interview, a few weeks after reporting to her probation officer, Paul Stack has begun sending several text messages that were not work related. Drake indicated she would receive text messages as late as 3:00am. The majority of the text messages were not work related and were of a personal nature. On July 19, 2017, photographic copies of several text messages were obtained from Drakes' cellular telephone sent to her from Stack. Stack indicates in his text message, if Drake needs anything to please let him know, he is always here to help, and was followed by another text message: "to the extent. I put 7hrs of community service in computer to get u off delinquent list oh your right cant help pay bills but can help u out other ways". On December 4, 2017, an additional interview of Offender Drake was conducted where she denied completing any community service hours at the Jacksonville Wildlife Rescue Coalition as she was told it was not an approved site. Drake indicated Stack advised her he would give her credit for hours worked due to her file being past due as it pertains to her community hours.

Affiant's reasons for so believing are as follows:

Your Affiant is Senior Inspector Walter "Lee" McGauley of the Office of the Inspector General, Florida Department of Corrections.

Your Affiant has probable cause to believe that on March 11, 2017, at the Department of Corrections Probation and Parole Office in Jacksonville, Duval County, Florida, Correctional Probation Officer Paul Daniel Stack did commit the criminal offense of Official Misconduct.

During the course of an investigation conducted by the Florida Department of Corrections, Office of the Inspector General, evidence has been obtained that shows the on March 11, 2017, Florida Department of Corrections, Senior Probation Officer, Paul Daniel Stack (Stack) did commit the criminal offense of Official Misconduct, in violation of §838.022, Fla. Stat., when he did, while performing his duties as a Florida Department of Corrections, Senior Probation Officer, falsify the official record and document (public service hours worked) in the Corrections Data Center (CDC) for Offender Patricia Drake DC# J52041, to indicate she performed and completed 10 hours of community service work at the Jacksonville Wildlife Rescue Coalition. The Jacksonville Wildlife Rescue Coalition is not an approved FDOC community service provider.

On May 2, 2017, Florida Department of Corrections Offender Patricia Drake testified in a sworn recorded interview, a few weeks after reporting to her probation officer, Paul Stack has begun sending several text messages that were not work related. Drake indicated she would receive text messages as late as 3:00am. The majority of the text messages were not work related and were of a personal nature.

On July 19, 2017, photographic copies of several text messages were obtained from Drakes' cellular telephone sent to her from Stack. Stack indicates in his text message, if Drake needs anything to please let him know, he is always here to help, and was followed by another text message: "to the extent. I put 7hrs of community service in computer to get u off delinquent list oh your right cant help pay bills but can help u out other ways".

On December 4, 2017, an additional interview of Offender Drake was conducted where she denied completing any community service hours at the Jacksonville Wildlife Rescue Coalition as she was told it was not an approved site. Drake indicated Stack advised her he would give her credit for hours worked due to her file being past due as it pertains to her community hours.

On July 19, 2017, a sworn digitally recorded interview was conducted with Monica Hormanski (Hormanski), where she testified to the following;

Hormanski testified she has been the director of the Wildlife Rescue Coalition in Jacksonville Florida for approximately four weeks. Hormanski testified she is familiar with Patricia Drake however she is not aware of or cannot locate any documentation to indicate Drake completed any community service hours at this location.

Hormanski testified she has access to all paperwork and documentation at the coalition as the director. Hormanski testified she is not aware of any offender completing community service hours at this location to include Drake.

On July 17, 2017, assistance was requested from Jeff Crum (Crum), Chief of Systems Development (FDC), to determine the identity of the person who entered the Community Service Hours for Drake in the Department of Corrections Database on March 11, 2017, to show 10 hours of public service hours worked. Crum verified the hours were entered by the computer user ID belonging to Paul Daniel Stack.

All this was done in furtherance and benefit of Stack's personal gain to culminate the relationship between him and Inmate/Offender Drake. Based on known facts thus far, it has been determined this Official Misconduct has been going on for several months.
