Upon arrival I made contact with Correctional Officer Doris Wiley and Randall Garbrough who stated as they were assigned to the screening position at the front of the prison to conduct staff searches. Officer Wiley and Garbrough stated Christina Willey and her lunch bag set off the metal detector. Officer Garbrough then asked Christina Willey several times to empty out her lunch bag of any metal objects. Officer Garbrough then removed a microwavable meal (lasagna) from her bag and ran it through the metal detector which kept going off. Officer Garbrough stated he then put the meal through the x-ray machine and noticed it contained metal objects inside the meal. Officer Wiley asked Christina Willey what was in the meal and she advised them she just purchased the meal from the store and has a receipt. Officer Wiley stated she observed the meal to not be sealed, then opened the box and discovered it contained cell phones, sim cards, SD cards and charger. Officer Wiley and Officer Garbrough then notified there chain of command.

Narcotics Detective Christian Friend and I interviewed Christina Willey. Christina Willey was read Miranda warnings from a pre-printed card and stated she understood her rights and wished to speak to us. Christina Willey admitted [REDACTED]
